

BELT SQUAT MACHINE

DS-926

PRODUCT DETAILS

Dimensions: 71 ½" L x 79" W x 64 ¾" H

The Defiant Strength Belt Squat sets a new standard for athletic performance training, delivering unmatched versatility, load capacity, and structural integrity. Engineered for athletes who demand the most from their training equipment, this is the most advanced belt squat on the market — purpose-built to maximize lower body development while reducing spinal load and innovatively designed with multi-function performance in mind.

- Next-Level Versatility with Flip-Over Dip: Unique flip-over dip attachment instantly converts the belt squat into a fully functional weighted dip station, expanding training options without requiring additional floor space.
- Maximum Load Capacity: Equipped with oversized front weight rods, the Defiant Belt Squat outperforms competitors in both loadability and durability, ensuring athletes can progress with confidence at every level of performance.
- Oversized Adjustable Platform: A large, fully adjustable training platform accommodates athletes of all sizes, while offering multiple stance positions to target strength, power, and athletic explosiveness.
- Integrated Weight Storage: Built-in exceptional weight storage capacity keeps plates organized and within reach, streamlining workouts and optimizing training environments.
- Defiant Strength Engineering: Constructed from premium-grade steel with reinforced welds and precision machining, this belt squat is built to withstand relentless use in high-performance weight rooms, universities, and professional facilities.

THE NEXT EVOLUTION OF ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE

WARRANTY EXCLUSIONS AND LIMITATIONS

Defiant Strength's factory warranty is valid only for products purchased directly from Defiant Strength or an Authorized Dealer of Defiant Strength products, with those products being paid in full. This warranty applies exclusively to the original purchaser and is non-transferable.

The following conditions will void this warranty:

- Purchase of Defiant Strength products from an unauthorized dealer, reseller, or any source not explicitly approved by Defiant Strength.
- Purchase of used or pre-owned Defiant Strength products from a private party, facility, or unauthorized source.
- Purchase of Defiant Strength products from an unauthorized internet retailer.
- Removal of any Defiant Strength branding from the equipment.
- Any outstanding invoices owed to Defiant Strength.
- Alteration or modification of Defiant Strength equipment in any way, including removing branding.

Additional Limitations:

- Defiant Strength is not liable for any special, indirect, incidental, or consequential damages related to its products, including property damage or personal injury.
- This warranty is expressly limited to the repair or replacement of defective components manufactured by Defiant Strength, at its sole discretion.
- Use of the equipment in environments with excessive temperatures or moisture may void the warranty.
- Normal wear and tear is not covered, including but not limited to cables, belts, chains, wear guards, powder coat finishes, or upholstery cuts.
- Damage caused by improper assembly, inadequate maintenance, or the installation of unauthorized components is not covered under this warranty.
- This warranty does not cover damage resulting from accidents, abuse, corrosion, improper use, neglect, theft, vandalism, fire, flood, lightning, freezing, natural disasters, collisions, or unauthorized modifications.

Defiant Strength reserves the right to void warranties at its sole discretion under the conditions outlined above.
